The Internet

Discussion Topics

Within your assigned groups discuss the following

1. Wikipedia is a website which contains a wealth of information and is used quite often to research a topic. In the academic environment however, Wikipedia cannot be referenced as a primary source, Discuss why.

2. Use a directory and a search engine to find a job in your intended field. Give the URL’s of the sites and compare and contrast the information using each engine. Which do you prefer and why?